RESPONSE OF INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT TO DEBTORS' ONE HUNDRED TWENTY NINTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS
(NO LIABILITY DERIVATIVE CLAIMS)

International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (“IBRD”), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits this response (the “Response”) to the Debtors' One Hundred Twenty Ninth Omnibus Objection to Claims, dated April 18, 2011 [Docket No. 16114] (the “Objection”), and in support thereof respectfully states as follows:

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On August 21, 1998, IBRD and Lehman Brothers Special Financing, Inc. (“LBSF”) entered into a 1992 ISDA Master Agreement (as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time, together with all schedules, exhibits and annexes thereto) (the “Master Agreement”). On August 21, 1998, IBRD and Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. (“LBHI”) entered into a guarantee agreement (the “Guarantee”), under which LBHI unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed to IBRD the obligations of LBSF under the Master Agreement.

2. Commencing on September 15, 2008, and periodically thereafter, LBHI, and certain of its subsidiaries, including LBSF (collectively, the “Debtors”), commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

3. On September 15, 2008, in exercise of its rights under Section 6(a) of the Master Agreement, IBRD provided LBSF with a notice designating September 16, 2008 as the Early Termination Date¹ in respect of the Master Agreement and all outstanding Transactions thereunder (the “Notice of Early Termination”).

4. On September 23, 2008, pursuant to Section 6(d)(i) of the Master Agreement, IBRD provided LBSF with a statement setting forth IBRD’s calculations of the Early Termination Amount. IBRD subsequently corrected this statement on three occasions, and on October 6, 2008, provided LBSF with a correct and final statement setting forth IBRD's calculations of the Early Termination Amount (the "Valuation Statement").

5. On July 2, 2009, this Court entered the Order Establishing the Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim, Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof and Approving the Proof of Claim Form [Docket No. 4271] (the "Bar Date Order"), which set forth procedures for filing proofs of claim in these chapter 11 cases, including claims based on Derivative Contracts.² The Bar Date Order provided that holders of claims based on Derivative Contracts must, inter alia, "complete [an] electronic Derivative Questionnaire" and provide "supporting documentation." (Bar Date Order at 7.) The Bar Date Order further provided that holders of "claim[s] against a Debtor based on amounts owed pursuant to a ... 'Guarantee'" must, inter alia, "complete [an] electronic Guarantee Questionnaire" and provide "supporting documentation and evidence of the underlying claim amount." (Id.)

6. On September 18, 2009, pursuant to the Bar Date Order, IBRD filed (i) a proof of claim against LBSF (Claim No. 18977) seeking recovery under the Master Agreement in the amount of $11,757,799.75 (the "LBSF Proof of Claim") and (ii) a proof of claim against LBHI (Claim No. 18976) seeking recovery under the Guarantee in the amount of $11,757,799.75 (the "LBHI Proof of Claim," together with the LBSF Proof of Claim, the "IBRD Claims"). Both proofs of claim were accompanied by an addendum asserting certain additional

² "Derivative Contract" is defined in the Bar Date Order as meaning "any contract that is of (i) a 'swap agreement' as such term is defined in section 101(53B) of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) a 'forward contract' as such term is defined in section 101(25) of the Bankruptcy Code" (See Bar Date Order at 6.)

claims for damages, fees, costs and/or expenses incurred by IBRD in connection with the relevant debtor's failure to perform its obligations under the relevant agreement.

7. On October 19, 2009, pursuant to the Bar Date Order, IBRD submitted a completed Derivative Questionnaire and a completed Guarantee Questionnaire, as well as the following supporting documentation: the Master Agreement; the Guarantee; the Notice of Early Termination, and evidence of the delivery thereof; the Valuation Statement; individual trade-level detail with respect to each transaction comprising the Valuation Statement; information regarding the date and identity of quotations received from Reference Market-makers or other persons concerning each transaction; and certain additional supporting information.

8. On April 18, 2011, the Debtors filed the Objection. The Objection seeks to have the IBRD Claims "disallowed and expunged," on the basis that they "provide no basis of liability as to the Debtors." (Objection ¶ 2.) Specifically, the Objection states that "[a]fter a review of [IBRD's] supporting documentation and the Debtors' books and records, the Debtors have determined that, based on the fair, accurate, and reasonable values of [the Master Agreement] and the netting provisions thereunder, the Debtors do not owe any amounts to [IBRD]." (Id.) The Objection avers that IBRD may "actually owe money to the Debtors based on [the Master Agreement]." (Id.) The Objection contemplates that the Debtors may, "[i]n an effort to resolve differences between the Debtors and [IBRD]," initiate alternative dispute resolution procedures approved by this Court in either the Affirmative Dispute Resolution Procedures Order for Affirmative Claims of Debtors Under Derivatives Contracts, dated September 17, 2009 [Docket No. 5207] or the Order Pursuant to Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9014, and General Order M-390 Authorizing the Debtors to Implement Claims Hearing Procedures and Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures for Claims Against Debtors, dated April 19, 2010 [Docket No. 8474].

ARGUMENT

Applicable Legal Standard

9. A properly filed proof of claim constitutes “prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f); see also In re DJK Residential LLC, 416 B.R. 100, 104 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009). The burden then shifts to the debtor to “produce evidence which, if believed, would refute at least one of the allegations that is essential to the claim’s sufficiency.” In re Alper Holdings USA, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 86, at *10 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2008) (quoting In re Spiegel, Inc., No. 03-11540, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 45589, 2007 WL 2456626, *15 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 22, 2007)). Should the debtor succeed in producing such evidence, the burden “reverts to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence.” Id.

The Debtors Have Produced No Evidence in Support of Their Objection

10. The Debtors have produced no evidence to support their Objection, let alone evidence sufficient to “refute at least one of the allegations . . . essential” to the IBRD Claims. Alper Holdings, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 86, at *10. The Debtors simply state, without further explanation or discussion, that based on their determination of the “fair, accurate, and reasonable value” of the Master Agreement, they do not owe any amounts to IBRD. (Objection ¶ 2.)

11. The Debtors claim to have “utilize[d] a thorough, multi-step process to review claims filed against the Debtors” (Id. ¶ 13.) But they offer no supporting documentation to substantiate this assertion, and no analysis explaining their methodology or conclusions.

12. The Debtors further claim that they have “engage[d] in, to the extent the holder [has been] willing to so engage, lengthy negotiations with the [holder] that are often very detailed and may extend over a period of months.” (Id.) To the contrary, while the Debtors have had limited discussions with IBRD, the Debtors have not at any point provided IBRD with the basis for their calculations, nor entered into negotiations to resolve any potential differences.

13. IBRD is open to such negotiations and is prepared to review and substantively respond to any documentation and analysis provided by the Debtors, should it be forthcoming.

The Debtors’ Proposed Approach Is Prejudicial to IBRD

14. Instead, the Debtors seek to have the IBRD Claims dissolved and expunged upfront. Only later, and only in the event that the Debtors elect to initiate alternative dispute resolution procedures, will IBRD be given the opportunity to evaluate and potentially critique the Debtors’ methodology. This is prejudicial to IBRD – as well as to all other claimants subject to the Objection – and runs contrary to the express provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules. See, e.g., Code Section 502(b); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f), 9014.

IBRD Has Proved the Validity of Its Claim

15. Should the Court nonetheless find that the Objection has caused the burden of proof to revert to IBRD, IBRD respectfully submits that it has met its burden. The IBRD Claims, Derivative Questionnaire, Guarantee Questionnaire, and the supporting materials submitted therewith, more than adequately prove the validity of the IBRD Claims. The IBRD Claims were calculated pursuant to the methodology stipulated in the Master Agreement. The Debtors have provided no justification for deviating from that methodology or for doubting the resultant calculations.

16. Should the Court find that IBRD has not yet met its burden, IBRD: (a) requests discovery from the Debtors as to their valuation of the IBRD Claims; (b) reserves the right to amend this Response; and (c) requests, if necessary, a full evidentiary hearing pursuant to Rule 9014(e) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Rule 9014-2 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure to determine the proper amounts of the IBRD Claims.

17. IBRD reserves all rights with respect to the IBRD Claims. Any failure to respond to the Objection on a particular ground or grounds shall not be construed as a waiver of the right to respond on any additional grounds.

CONCLUSION

18. For the reasons stated herein, IBRD respectfully requests that this Court overrule the Objection; allow the IBRD Claims in the amount filed, plus amounts as yet unliquidated; and grant such other, further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
